years. Unfortunately, too many do not have this benefit and blessing.

In the church maybe it was pastor, Sunday school teacher, usher, greeter, a fellow altar guild worker, a choir member, a lay reader, an altar server, a fellow worker who keeping the church inside or outside a space where love, peace, hope, mercy, grace and Jesus can abound, a altar flower worker who shows beauty for the space and soul, the hospitality person who's smile and spirit offers substance for body and soul, the sound of music and voice whereby hearts and spirits can be refreshed. So many diverse and unique ministries offered by some in our past and in their way shared Jesus. We recall those who sat next to us in the pew. They were there most Sundays and would pass the Peace of the Lord. This is the mystery of All souls and All saints in the power of the Holy Spirit. They showed us by example servants who laid down in service and talent for the ministry of the Church.

My second observation is that we also can be that opportunity and springboard for us to do the same as beautifully depicted in the song "I sing a song of the Saints of God". We who are the now and present can offer the same in letting His light shine because of His grace, mercy, and loved share by those before us. Reflecting on these spiritual acts of kindness can give us direction and guidance in ways we can serve today and tomorrow. Do we want to be used by God? Do we want others to have opportunities for life? This year fall capital campaign gives us the opportunity to be living saints of God ensuring ministry touches lives...

Dear friends at Holy Comforter,

I want to share some news with you about an important transition on our parish staff. I give thanks to God for His provision of The Rev. Deacon Joe Scheff to join our clergy team. Dcn. Joe's first Sunday with us will be on Christ the King Sunday, November 24th.

Dcn. Joe is an Atlanta native who has been married to the Rev. Canon Tanya Scheff (Rector of St. Paul's Quincy) for 37 years this year. He has five children and 10 Grandchildren. Dcn. Joe served as a retired Navy Hospital Corpsman of 24 years and lived in Korea, Japan, and Turkey. He is a member of The Order of St. Luke, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, The confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels, and a Life Member of the VFW.

Please join me in giving Dcn. Joe a very warm welcome and all the support he needs as he settles into this new role. And please continue to pray for Holy Comforter as we move into this new stage of ministry together.
